

Iowa Children’s Choice Award Battle of the Books

Pleasant View students in 4th-6th grade are invited to participate in a Battle of the Books style competition. Using the Iowa Children’s Choice Award list, teams of students will have the opportunity to compete in a local, district, and regional event. Here’s how:

- Students form teams of three. Team members may be any combination of 4th, 5th, or 6th grade Pleasant View students. (Mrs. Anderson will help you find team members if needed.)
- Local Competition: Registered teams will compete in a Pleasant View battle. This round will be 25 written questions and take place on February 21st during the school day.
- District Competition: The top two teams representing Pleasant View will compete with the top two teams from Riverdale Heights, Hopewell, and Cody. This trivia style round of competition will be held at Bettendorf Public Library on March 6th 4:30 pm-6:30 pm.
- Regional Competition: The top team from the PV District Battle will compete with teams from North Scott, Davenport, Durant, Walcott, Bettendorf, and other area schools. The Eastern Iowa Battle of the Books Final is scheduled for March 30 10:00-12:00 am at Bettendorf Public Library.

❖ Return bottom portion of this page to Mrs. Anderson no later than December 14.

We, the undersigned agree to the following:

- * There will be no switching of team members after you have submitted your team form below.
- * We will work together as a team
- * We will speak highly of each other
- * We will communicate with each other as we set goals and work to meet the goals
- * We will be positive and strive to do our very best
- * If we have questions, we will seek answers as a team from Mrs. Anderson.
