Series 600

Policy Title Administrative Procedures for Awarding Credits to Code No. 603.11R
Students Receiving Competent Private Instruction

1. The petitioning student will be provided a current Course of Study Booklet. The student will be required to identify and enumerate the courses from that booklet for which they propose to receive credit.
2. The petitioning student will provide results on standardized tests, including ITBS, ITED, ACT, and SAT that would support granting credit for courses for which approval is being considered.
3. The petitioning student may be required to complete subject area final exams or other indications of subject level competence. This will be determined by the school district.
4. Any agreement on credit awards will be tentative until it receives the final approval from the Superintendent of Schools.
