

DAY OF THE DEAD

family fiesta

el día de los muertos

FREE • NOON-5 PM SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28

This traditional Mexican holiday, The Day of the Dead, is a profoundly serious occasion celebrated with great joy, laughter, music and dance as we remember the lives of lost loved ones. Enjoy free admission all day as you join us to celebrate the rich cultural traditions of El Día de los Muertos through art projects, live performances, music and food.

studio activities

NOON – 4 PM

STUDIO 4 Sugar Skulls, families can see how traditional Calaveras de azúcar (sugar skulls) are made, and then decorate one to take home!

STUDIO 3 Kids and their bigs can create a calavera out of clay. Or make a pop-up Day of the Dead scene.

STUDIO 2 Make a marigold or butterfly to leave in memory at the community altar, or to take home to enjoy.

BOARD ROOM Share a memory of a loved one you have lost through this activity.

auditorium

12-3 PM Watch a variety of films about the holiday.

galleries

- Explore the museum's galleries and discover our collections featuring artists of Latino heritage.
- View the traditional hand-made Catrinas on display in the 2nd floor galleries.

Lobby

NOON Pan de Muerto samples, chips and salsa, water and spiced cocoa.

ALL DAY Have your face painted to look like a Catrina or Calavera!

ALL DAY View the traditional Day of the Dead altar created by the LULAC Youth Group.

4 PM Sample authentic Mexican food.

performances

- Enjoy pop-up performances by dancers from Ballet Folklórico throughout the day

3 PM Final Performance from Ballet Folklórico

4 PM Live Music from the Glenview Mariachi Band

In partnership with

Family Day sponsors

